Arielle received her J.D. from the University of Baltimore School of Law and her B.A. in Criminology and Criminal Justice from the University of Maryland, College Park. During law school, Arielle worked as a law clerk at a civil litigation law firm, specializing in personal injury cases. Additionally, Arielle served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Cynthia H. Jones in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City.

Prior to joining Eccleston and Wolf, Arielle served as an Assistant State's Attorney with the Montgomery County State's Attorney's Office, representing the State of Maryland in criminal matters. Before that, Arielle worked as a Judicial Law Clerk for the Honorable Cynthia H. Jones of the Circuit Court for Baltimore City.

Arielle focuses her practice on professional malpractice defense, representation of Homeowner's Associations (HOA), community organizations and management companies, employment litigation, housing discrimination defense, personal injury, and general casualty matters.
